

Tuesday 19 September (Sustainability)

Time	Sherfield Building Registration	Read Lecture Theatre	Queen's Tower Rooms	Meeting Room
9.30–10.00	Registration Open	Presentation
10.00–11.15		WELCOME AND PLENARY SESSION: The role of university tech transfer in creating a sustainable future Dr Diarmuid O'Brien – Chief Executive, Cambridge Enterprise Alyssa Gilbert – Director of Undaunted, and Director of Innovation at the Grantham Institute – Climate Change and the Environment Dr Mairi Gibbs – Chief Operating Officer, Oxford University Innovation Dr Steven Schooling – Director of Engineering and Physical Sciences, UCLB This panel will be hosted and chaired by Chi Onwurah MP, Shadow Minister for Science, Research and Innovation
11.15–12.30			Exhibition	Open for meetings
12.30–13.30			Lunch
13.30–14.00			Exhibition
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15		AFTERNOON PRESENTATIONS: MATcelerate: Cross-partner working to achieve net-zero materials to enable the UK's energy transition Dr Gillian Davis, Cambridge Enterprise What are the differences between technology licensing and translational partnerships? Fabian Lim – Imperial College London The extensive academic and industry experience found within a TTO Mark Harding – UCLB What does the process of working with TTOs look like? Dr Chandra Sekar Ramanujan – Oxford University Innovation What does the timeline of tech licensing and partnership creation look like with our TTOs? Margaret Wilkinson – Cambridge Enterprise National Securities & Investment Act considerations for university tech transfer Attilio Leccisotti – Mishcon de Reya LLP Q&A The Afternoon Presentations will be hosted and chaired by Nicola McConville – Equity Partner, Mishcon de Reya LLP
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00			Drinks reception sponsored by Imperial Business Partners

Tuesday 19 September (Sustainability)

Time	Read Lecture Theatre
	Presentation
9.30–10.00
10.00–11.15	WELCOME AND PLENARY SESSION: The role of university tech transfer in creating a sustainable future Dr Diarmuid O'Brien – Chief Executive, Cambridge Enterprise Alyssa Gilbert – Director of Undaunted, and Director of Innovation at the Grantham Institute – Climate Change and the Environment Dr Mairi Gibbs – Chief Operating Officer, Oxford University Innovation Dr Steven Schooling – Director of Engineering and Physical Sciences, UCLB This panel will be hosted and chaired by Chi Onwurah MP, Shadow Minister for Science, Research and Innovation
11.15–12.30
12.30–13.30
13.30–14.00
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15	AFTERNOON PRESENTATIONS: MATcelerate: Cross-partner working to achieve net-zero materials to enable the UK's energy transition Dr Gillian Davis, Cambridge Enterprise What are the differences between technology licensing and translational partnerships? Fabian Lim – Imperial College London The extensive academic and industry experience found within a TTO Mark Harding – UCLB What does the process of working with TTOs look like? Dr Chandra Sekar Ramanujan – Oxford University Innovation What does the timeline of tech licensing and partnership creation look like with our TTOs? Margaret Wilkinson – Cambridge Enterprise National Securities & Investment Act considerations for university tech transfer Attilio Leccisotti – Mishcon de Reya LLP Q&A The Afternoon Presentations will be hosted and chaired by Nicola McConville – Equity Partner, Mishcon de Reya LLP
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00

Tuesday 19 September (Sustainability)

Time	Sherfield Building Registration	Read Lecture Theatre	Queen's Tower Rooms	Meeting Room
		Presentation
9.30–10.00	Registration Open
10.00–11.15		Welcome and plenary session
11.15–12.30			Exhibition	Open for meetings
12.30–13.30			Lunch
13.30–14.00			Exhibition
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15		Afternoon presentations
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00			Drinks reception sponsored by Imperial Business Partners	