

Wednesday 20 September (Future Health)

Time	Sherfield Building Registration	Read Lecture Theatre	Queen’s Tower Rooms	Meeting Room
		Presentation
9.30–10.00	Registration Open
10.00–11.15		WELCOME AND PLENARY SESSION: How healthcare and medtech companies can leverage technology innovations from universities? Dr Paul Seabright – Deputy Director, Cambridge Enterprise Dr Simon Hepworth – Director, Imperial Enterprise Dr Matt Perkins – CEO, Oxford University Innovation Dr Anne Lane – CEO, UCLB This panel will be hosted and chaired by Sally Mardikian, Director, Transactions, AstraZeneca.
11.15–12.30			Exhibition	Open for meetings
12.30–13.30		Lunch
13.30–14.00		Exhibition
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15		AFTERNOON PRESENTATIONS: Answering businesses’ specific challenges: How to access world-leading technical experts through academic consultancy Jaci Barnett – Oxford University Innovation What are the differences between technology licensing and translational partnerships? Fabian Lim – Imperial College London The extensive academic and industry experience found within a TTO Weng Sie Wong – UCLB What does the process of working with TTOs look like? Dr Dinali De Silva – Oxford University Innovation What does the timeline of tech licensing and partnership creation look like with our TTOs? Margaret Wilkinson – Cambridge Enterprise RQ Bio: A case study Patrick Farrant - Mishcon de Reya LLP Q&A The Afternoon Presentations will be hosted and chaired by Nicola McConville – Equity Partner, Mishcon de Reya LLP
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00			Drinks reception sponsored by Medtechtomarket

Wednesday 20 September (Future Health)

Time	Read Lecture Theatre
	Presentation
9.30–10.00
10.00–11.15	WELCOME AND PLENARY SESSION: How healthcare and medtech companies can leverage technology innovations from universities? Dr Paul Seabright – Deputy Director, Cambridge Enterprise Dr Simon Hepworth – Director, Imperial Enterprise Dr Matt Perkins – CEO, Oxford University Innovation Dr Anne Lane – CEO, UCLB This panel will be hosted and chaired by Sally Mardikian, Director, Transactions, AstraZeneca.
11.15–12.30
12.30–13.30
13.30–14.00
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15	AFTERNOON PRESENTATIONS: Answering businesses’ specific challenges: How to access world-leading technical experts through academic consultancy Jaci Barnett – Oxford University Innovation What are the differences between technology licensing and translational partnerships? Fabian Lim – Imperial College London The extensive academic and industry experience found within a TTO Weng Sie Wong – UCLB What does the process of working with TTOs look like? Dr Dinali De Silva – Oxford University Innovation What does the timeline of tech licensing and partnership creation look like with our TTOs? Margaret Wilkinson – Cambridge Enterprise RQ Bio: A case study Patrick Farrant - Mishcon de Reya LLP Q&A The Afternoon Presentations will be hosted and chaired by Nicola McConville – Equity Partner, Mishcon de Reya LLP
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00

Wednesday 20 September (Future Health)

Time	Sherfield Building Registration	Read Lecture Theatre	Queen's Tower Rooms	Meeting Room
		Presentation
9.30–10.00	Registration Open
10.00–11.15		Welcome and plenary session
11.15–12.30			Exhibition	Open for meetings
12.30–13.30		Lunch
13.30–14.00		Exhibition
14.00–14.30
14.30–15.15		Afternoon presentations
15.15–16.00
16.30–18.00			Drinks reception sponsored by Medtechtomarket	